My name is Alan, and I went to art camp this summer. Art camp is a place where you go to study and make art all day for two weeks. I took photos of all the children at camp with their paintings and sculptures. One of the photos is of Craig. He has been coming to art camp since he was six years old. Every year he paints, but this year he made a sculpture instead. In the photo I took, he is holding a statue of a man. He said it was his father. I took another photo of a girl named Mary. In the photo, she is holding a beautiful painting of a purple flower. It was the teacher's favorite painting. I tried to draw my brother, but I can't draw faces very well, so I took photos instead.
