Unit 10, Lesson 3: Reading

Task 7: Reading Comprehension Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the correct answers.

My name is Alice. Last summer, I went to Brazil with my friend Sue and her family. We walked in the rain forest. My friend's mother knows about all the plants that grow there. She said that some of them can be cooked over a fire, but not all of them. One plant had big pink flowers. She said that many people use these flowers to make tea. When I returned home, she gave me a lot of books about plants. I read all of them. Sue was going to give them to her mother when I finished reading them, but her mother didn't take them. She said to my friend, "They were mine, but now they are hers."

1. How did Alice become interested in plants?

- A. She took a class.
- B. She visited Brazil.
- C. She had flower tea.

2. What did Sue's mother teach Alice?

- A. which plants are good to eat
- B. which plants grow the fastest
- C. which plants are easy to find

3. Who has the books now?

- A. Alice
- B. Sue
- C. Sue's mother
