COOKING WITH SUSAN

by Susan Jones

Some people think that all Italian food is the same, but food from northern Italy is different from food in southern Italy. Northern Italy uses much more meat, but southern Italy uses more fish.

I have been cooking Italian food ever since I went there when I was a student. Many foods were new to me, but I ate everything. Sometimes I even had to eat foods that were very spicy! Cooking Italian food is easy. But don't forget to take your time! If you work too fast, the food will not be good.

I also make many sweets. Italian sweets use milk and cream but also fruit. Some use sour fruit, like lemons. They are all good.

1. How is southern Italian food different from food in northern Italy?

- A. It has no vegetables.
- B. It has more fruit.
- C. It has less beef.

2. What should you remember to do when cooking?

- A. buy expensive food
- B. work slowly
- C. cook fish a long time

3. What kind of food does Susan not like very much?

- A. spicy food
- B. sweet foods
- C. sour foods
